

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Verge Brewing Company Coming to Delhi

Delhi, Ohio - May 6, 2022 - Verge Brewing company has secured a location on greater Cincinnati's west side at 4807 Delhi Pike. The location is in the heart of the Delhi neighborhood, about a block away from a new real estate development with over 150 new apartments and less than 2 miles from Mount St. Joseph University.

The roughly 3,000 SQ ft facility is soon to be renovated to house the brewery, taproom and a kitchen. "We're very excited to be a part of the Delhi community," said Assistant Brewer and co-founder Phil Didion. "It just has so much light," says Delhi resident and Verge Brewing co-founder Tyra Schmidt.

Since the beginning of their fundraising efforts with local platform Wunderfund, the team has been enthusiastic about serving the west side of Cincinnati. Verge Brewing plans to open their taproom by the end of 2022. Current building occupant, Valvano Carpeting, will be moving to the building next door for an expanded showroom.

Verge Brewing Overview

Verge Brewing is a proudly family-owned brewery with a leadership group that is 50% women and 30% Native American. Verge Brewing's core leadership is made up of long-time beer judges with a strong background in building craft beer recipes from scratch. They've won over 80 competitive homebrewing awards over the years, producing beers that have become family favorites.

<https://www.facebook.com/vergebrewing> | <https://www.instagram.com/vergebrewing/>

Press contact:

Angela Praksti
Co-founder, CMO
angela@vergebrewing.com

###